International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and Fuller Center for Housing Armenia Partnership

Since 2010, the Fuller Center for Housing Armenia and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) have been partnering under a cooperation agreement to help families of the missing rehabilitate their homes. Since the beginning of 2015, in the frames of the same agreement, the partners started assisting also the victims of mine /ERW (explosive remnants of war) by rehabilitating their houses.

On 3 March, MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING was signed for 2022 between the International Committee of the Red Cross and the Fuller Center for Housing Armenia.

Altogether, in 12 years, 209 families have been assisted through the partnership.

In 2021, 33 families were assisted. Eight of them have finished the house construction. Another 25 families will finish it in 2022.

Spring with the First Global Builders (GB) Volunteer Teams of 2022

The 2022 GB volunteer season launched with an awesome volunteer team, led by Kimberly Hallgren, joined Fuller Center for Housing Armenia worked diligently to give a hand-up to an Armenian family in housing need from Ginevet village of Ararat region.

Another incredible team, led by Paul Erbes, worked diligently in Hovtashen village of Ararat region to make decent housing possible for another family.

The trips were full of exhilarating experiences, ecstatic moments, and tears of happiness. The teams were different, as all teams are. However, there is something that connects all of them, and that is kindness. There is something extraordinarily pleasant about volunteering and about the mission of helping those who are in dire need of it.

Organized, vigorous, diligent, and kind people from different parts of the world united their forces to give a helping hand to families in need of decent housing.

“Volunteers have always been the indispensable part of our mission. We are grateful for their time, efforts and willingness to be part of our mission,” said Ashot Yeghiazaryan, the Fuller Center for Housing Armenia President.

“Armenia was a fantastic destination. It was safe, and the people are friendly. It was an opportunity to learn about a culture and country that I was not familiar with,” said Susan Wise, GB volunteer team member.
