

The most worthwhile experience anyone could ask for.

Knowing that you had a small part positively impacting a family's life is priceless and an experience that you will never forget.

The trust gained is priceless; volunteers sharing their experience!

I have been on more than 30 builds, and the interaction with the partner families was the best!

Absolutely fabulous! Certainly among the best, maybe the best, among my 30+ build trips.

Homes that Good Will Builds

For over 15 years, FCH Armenia has been dedicated to hosting Global Builders volunteers, aiming to provide essential support to families in need. This summer proved to be particularly active, as we welcomed five exceptional volunteer teams, with an additional four scheduled for the fall.

A common thread among these individuals is their profound love and desire to effect positive change; their steadfast dedication not only enhances the lives of those they assist but also motivates others to participate in this noble cause, fostering a ripple effect of good will.

Next year, we will proudly celebrate the milestone of hosting our 100th volunteer team.

Additionally, this year was marked by the participation of both local and international teams, who joined our families for brief engagements of one to two days. We were pleased to host two teams from the ACYOA ASP program, as well as teams from KPMG Armenia and AGBU Discover Armenia. It was gratifying for these teams to realize that even small gestures of kindness can have a profound impact on those in need.
